7 Pir Hussain has no right to succeed. Mahabali khan being the Nephew of Ameena Bee, is not under the Mah[m]" law an heir to Ameena Bee. Jinne khan is therefore entitled to the pension. But as he has relinquished it in favour of Mahabali khan the pension may be continued in favour of the latter. It will also be equitable to continue the pension to him as he is a son of the husband of Ameena Bee who was the holder of the pensions to which on his death Ameena Bee succeeded.

To

D.M.Narasinga Rao Esq., B.A., B.L., Offg:Secretary to the Government of H.H.
the Maharaja of Mysore, Genl. and Rev.Depts.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that one Mohadin Khan who was drawing a Sarjapur stipend of Rs.0-15-7 died some 20 years ago leaving behind, (1) Mahabali Khan a minor son by his 1st wife, (2) Amina Bee his second wife and (3) Budan Bee his step-mother. After enquiry the stipend was transferred to the name of his second wife Amina Bee. But by private agreement this stipend was as per statement of Amina Bee herself, taken on 8th July 1908, being enjoyed between Amina Bee and Budan Bee. Both Amina Bee and Budan Bee died in the year 1909, leaving Mahabali Khan, Amina Bee's step-mother, Gous Khan, Amina Bee's own son and Peer Hussain, Budan Bee's daughter's son.

2. The first man Mahabali Khan claims the stipend to be made in his name, and the second is agreeable to it. Peer Hussain claims half the stipend on the ground that the title to the same has been transferred to him by an unregistered will said to have been executed by Budan Bee.

3. Under the above circumstances the entire file of Vernacular records is herewith submitted for the orders of Government.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant.

K.Chandy
Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District.

of the stipend under a private arrangement, Gouse Khan has relinquished his claim in favour of Mahabali Khan and that Peer Hussain claims the share of Budan Bi on the strength of a will left by her in his favour, and soliciting orders on the question of succession to the stipend.

Order thereon No. 1851-29 27 October 1944

Neither Peer Hussain nor Mahabali Khan is the rightful heir under the Mahomedan Law to the deceased Ameena Bi. Peer Hussain has moreover, no legally vested interest in the stipend as Budan Bi used to get a share of the stipend under a private arrangement not sanctioned by Government.

2. Gouse Khan, son of the deceased is doubtless entitled to succeed to the pension; but he has relinquished his claim in favour of Mahabali Khan

Mahabali Khan, the stepson of Ameena Bi who succeeded to the stipend enjoyed by her husband on his death.

3. Under these circumstances, Government direct that the vacant stipend of Rs 2-15-7 p.m. be registered in the name of Mahabali Khan from the date it became vacant by the death of Ameena Bi.
